

Tino Pehar, Kroatien

FCI all breeds judge

Tino was born in 1974. His life has always been filled with love for all animals and especially for dogs. Tino's parents owned German Shepherds and when he started to walk, it was with "hands on". There was always dogs in their house, and until today they bred or owned Posavian Hounds, Labradors, Brittany's, Lhasa Apso, Griffons and at present he's breeding Dachshunds (Smooth) as well as other different kind of animals like birds, pigeons, turtles, chickens.

Tino has judged in 45 different countries at different international, national and speciality shows including major ones as well as nearly all Winner shows in Scandinavian and Baltic countries and also had honor to do BIS at Copenhagen and Norwegian winner shows. First judges exam passed with success in 1999 for Croatian hounds and 12 years later Croatian kennel club approved him to judge all breeds on international level like youngest Croatian all rounder. He helps in organizations of a few dog shows and contributes to several dog magazines. Fluent in English.
